With a goal of providing a safe music festival for our fans, we also have a responsibility in providing the same standards for the levels of safety and security to everyone who enters through the gates of Bands in the Backyard. With that in mind, Bands in the Backyard has a new clear bag policy in the concert area.

Similarly to football stadiums and many arenas across North America, up to 14" x 17" clear plastic bags, standard one-gallon freezer bags and small clutches and purses will be permitted, while items such as backpacks, large purses, and coolers will be prohibited.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Bands in the Backyard is committed to providing a safe and enjoyable entertainment experience in which you can always expect to be treated in a consistent, professional and courteous manner by all venue, security and operations personnel. With that in mind, please remember to include this basic common-sense approach to your own conduct:

- Fans may not interfere with the event and/or performers in any manner.
- Please refrain from using abusive language or obscene gestures.
- Fighting, throwing objects or other behavior deemed detrimental to the experience of other guests will result in you going home early.

- Bands in the Backyard fans are encouraged to report inappropriate behavior to festival staff.
- Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in eviction from the venue without a ticket refund.
